MORGEN+/ WINS IAHA'S LEGION OF SUPREME HONOR

P pyramid Society member, Jan Finseth, is pleased to announce that her mare Morgen +/, (Aliosha (Ruminaga Ali) x DF Ever Joy (*Fakher El Din), will be presented with IAHA's Legion of Supreme Honor at the East Coast Championships in Quentin, PA.

Bred by Pyramid Society members Ann & Larry Dorsett of Dorsett Farms in Swedesboro, NJ, Morgen+ / was Jan's first Arabian and was purchased as a two-year-old. By the end of her third year she was on the trail. As she matured, in both mind and body, her athletic abilities blossomed. Jan asked Pyramid Society member Pam Thompson to evaluate Morgen's suitability for dressage. A month later Morgen+ / went to her first schooling show and by August, she was competing in First Level and winning Championships. In 2000 Morgen+ / was shown in open as well as Arabian shows. She won both the Regional and East Coast Championships, capping off the year by earning the IAHA Legion of Honor.

In 2001 Morgen +/ was shown at the Egyptian Event, won all four of her tests and was honored with the Egyptian Event High Point Dressage Horse Award. It was at the Egyptian Event in Kentucky that Morgen+ / accumulated enough points to earn the IAHA Legion of Supreme Honor award.

Morgen+ / has worked hard, learned her lessons well and given her owner and breeders a tremendous sense of pride. Congratulations Jan Morgen+ / for your outstanding accomplishments. For more information, contact Jan Finseth at jfinseth@datelinefixtures.com or phone: (856) 223-9330.
